Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE three MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 15-17,19-22,25-27,29-32 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In the claims the steps of structuring an exchange traded exchangeable security with an minimum holding period exchange date and an exchange maturity date, wherein said exchangeable security can be exchanged, at the option of the holder, for a predetermined specific number of shares of the underlying security at a time beginning or later than the minimum holding period and ending at the predetermined exchange maturity date, said exchangeable security linked to a pre-determined linked payment paid to the holder of said exchangeable security at said maturity date if said exchangeable security is tendered for said underlying security at a time on or after said minimum holding period through said maturity date, is vague and indefinite with respect to option steps involved.

The following language will overcome this rejection:

structuring an exchange traded exchangeable security with an minimum holding period exchange date and an exchange maturity date, providing the said exchangeable security an option for exchanging said security for a predetermined specific number of shares of the underlying security, said option commencing at a time beginning or later than the minimum holding period and ending at the predetermined exchange maturity date, providing said exchangeable security a linked to a pre-determined linked payment paid to the holder of said exchangeable security at said maturity date if said exchangeable security is tendered for said underlying security at a time on or after said minimum holding period through said maturity date.

Separately, the antecedent basis of said payment (vs said linked payment) is unclear.

Claims 15-17,19-22,25-27,29-32 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
